 Auto Renew:

By signing up to Auto Renew (annual direct debit) you give permission for your credit card details to be stored in a secure database location where your credit card will be charged annually as a recurring payment. The first payment will be taken at the start of the following month in which you signed up and then annually for the next year of membership at the then-current rate. A membership card with updated expiry and a notice of anticipated payment will be posted within the month of current expiry, including a complimentary gift. You will only be notified if there are any changes to the amount or date of your direct debit or if we are unable to process your payment.

If you wish to cancel your Auto Renew Membership at any time, please do so at the earliest opportunity and preferably at least 10 working days before your payment is due. You can do so by contacting the Membership Office on 7085 1681. Subject to any rights to cancel, Memberships fees are non-refundable once payment has been received and Membership benefits are not transferable.

The Art Gallery of South Australia is not responsible for any loss or damage you may suffer from incorrect or incomplete account details that you have provided to us, or delay by us or your financial institution. The Gallery may be required to disclose information about you that we have collected as part of your Auto Renew Request where such disclosure is required by law or for the purpose of this Agreement. Auto Renew is not available as a payment method when purchasing a gift membership.
